

METRO.

We'll Get You There

Planning a Trip? We have many ways to assist you

LOG ON TO METRO ONLINE at www.kingcounty.gov/metro and click on the "Trip Planner" feature for bus travel itineraries created just for you. Planning a trip is as simple as entering your starting and ending locations and desired travel times. It's fast, easy and offers many options.

CALL OUR RIDER INFORMATION OFFICE for personal assistance from knowledgeable specialists. Call 206-553-3000 or 206-684-1739 (TTY). Phones are staffed 24 hours a day except for major holidays.

CALL BUSTIME at 206-287-8463 for the scheduled departure times of buses at bus stops. All you need to know is your route number.

PICK UP A TIMETABLE at Metro Customer Service offices in downtown Seattle, located at:

- King Street Center, 201 S. Jackson St.
- Westlake Customer Stop

Westlake Station
Westlake Center Mall, lower level

Timetables are also available on buses and at more than 500 locations throughout King County, including public libraries, shopping centers, the downtown Seattle post office, University Bookstore, 7-11 stores and Bartell Drug stores. You can also go to Metro Online to view and print timetables.

King County
METRO

We'll Get You There

So Much for So Little

WHAT TO PAY

Your bus fare can be paid with dollar bills, coins, tickets or a bus pass. Exact fare is required at all times. During weekday peak hours, Metro has a two-zone fare system. Seattle is one zone, the rest of King County the other. The Seattle city limits is the zone line. A transfer is issued only when fare is paid. Peak-hour trips are from 6 - 9 a.m. and 3 - 6 p.m. and are shaded on Metro's printed timetables.

Fares*		One Zone	Two Zone
Peak Trips	Adults (18-64 yrs)	$1.75	$2.25
	Youth (6-17 yrs)	.50	.50
	Senior Citizen (65+ yrs), Disabled & Medicare Cardholders (with Reduced Fare Permit)	.50	.50
Off-Peak Trips	Adults (18-64 yrs)	$1.50	$1.50
	Youth (6-17 yrs)	.75	.75
	Senior Citizen (65+ yrs), Disabled & Medicare Cardholders (with Reduced Fare Permit)	.50	.50
Special Fares	Family Plan (Sunday, holidays)	Four children age 17 & under may ride free with a fare-paying adult
	Children (0-5 yrs)	Four children may ride free with fare-paying adult
	Day Pass (Sat., Sun., holidays)	$3.50	Purchase from bus driver

*Fares subject to change.
Visit www.kingcounty.gov/metro for current fares.

WHEN TO PAY

The sign on the farebox (inside the front door of the bus) tells you when to pay. When your travel requires riding a second bus, ask for a transfer when you pay your fare — it's free.

REGIONAL TRANSFER

Transfers from Community Transit, Everett Transit, King County Metro, Pierce Transit and Sound Transit are universally accepted for base fare.

RIDE FREE AREA

Between 6 a.m. and 7 p.m., you ride the bus FREE in downtown Seattle.

Passes & Ticketbooks

You can buy Monthly, 3-Month, 12-Month, Visitor Passes and Ticketbooks in person at Metro Customer Service Offices in downtown Seattle at King Street Center, 201 S. Jackson St., and at the Weslake Customer Stop, Westlake Station, lower level of Westlake Center Mall*. You can also order by phone at 206-624-PASS, or buy online at www.kingcounty.gov/metro. Passes and ticketbooks are also sold at many retail outlets around King County. Visit Metro Online or call 206-624-PASS for your nearest location. Many companies subsidize passes for their employees, too. Ask...yours may be one!

PUGETPASS

PugetPass is valid as fare payment on Metro Transit and its regional partner systems: Community Transit, Everett Transit, Pierce Transit, and Sound Transit. You can use a PugetPass for any regular service ride on any system in our three-county region. If your ride costs more than the value shown on the front of the pass, you may add cash to pay the difference between the trip cost and pass value.

*Opening early September, 2008.

